

Roger Alan Wolf

April 22, 1968 - May 3, 2021

Roger Alan Wolf II (April 22, 1962- May 3, 2021)

Roger Alan Wolf II passed away on May 3, 2021 in Ocala, Florida. Born in Indianapolis, Indiana to parents Roger Wolf, Sr. and the late Charla Canada Wolf, Roger graduated from the Out of Door Academy and Riverview High School in Sarasota, Florida. He served two years in the Navy, and later pursued a passion and career as a professional photographer. Besides searching for the next great picture, Roger was a sports and music fanatic. He was a Hoosier at heart who loved and followed everything about IU and the Colts, but next in line (when he wasn't golfing with his father) were the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Tampa Bay Rays. Roger's playlists were legendary, and remain to be treasured for generations to come.

Roger is survived by his daughter, Taylor Wolf; his father, Roger Sr.; his sister, Cammie Rice, and brother in law, John Rice; his nephew, Chase Browning; Tanner and Steve Rice; many loving and supportive cousins and family members; and "man's best friend," his loving dog Bono. He was predeceased by his other nephew, Christopher Wolf.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Roger's memory can be made to the Christopher Wolf Crusade (CWC.ngo)
