“ I am a total stranger here, but there can only be so many Mella Rolandes in the world - just a note that the Bank of Canada lists a Mella Rollande and William Smith as having an unclaimed savings account with more than $38,000 that's being held by the BoC after being turned over by the Royal Bank in Toronto for inactivity (10 years). I have no stake in this but really hope someone from the family/estate sees this and can investigate, surely it would help someone in the family out.
