

Ronald Ray Alger

February 23, 1949 - July 13, 2020

Ronald Ray Alger was born on February 23, 1949 in Boonville, NY to the late Allen F. Alger and Viona B. Alger-Fonda. Ron is survived by his loving wife of 49 years, Diann; son, Joseph and daughter-in-law Jessica Alger. He was the proud Papa to Madison and Cameron Alger. He also leaves behind his step-mother, Theresa Alger; three brothers, Gary Alger (Frances) of Johnstown, NY, David Alger (Jennifer) of Franklin, NC and Eric Alger (Christy) of Oxford AL and many extended family members who loved him dearly.

Ron moved to Sarasota in the summer of 1963 and spent 56 memorable years there. This past June Ron and DiAnn relocated to North Port, FL to be closer to his son and grandchildren. Ron had many passions in life; being a husband, father and Papa topped his list. While his love for cars followed right behind. Many would say Ron had a love for people, there wasn't many places you went and didn't run into someone he knew. He could talk for hours and knew just how to make you laugh. It was in 2015 when Ron became a Papa for the first time, and anyone who knew him knew this was his greatest accomplishment. His love for his grandchildren was unmeasurable, and his legacy will be lived on through them. As his granddaughter would say he was the "Best Papa Ever". He will be greatly missed by all.
