

Ronald Robert Mustari Jr

June 30, 1964 - December 24, 2024

Ronald Robert Mustari Jr. (JR) passed away on the morning of December 24, 2024. He was born to Vivian and Ronald Mustari Sr. in Cook County, Illinois on June 30, 1964. JR's childhood was marked by his boundless curiosity and a fascination with building and creating. Growing up outside of Chicago in the 1960s and '70s, he spent countless hours tinkering with old cars and motors—a passion that stayed with him throughout his life.

A lover of life on the water, JR relocated to sunny Sarasota, Florida, in the 1980s, where he worked for the family company, Whitehall Quality Homes, until 2008. Afterward, JR used his creativity and entrepreneurial spirit to open his own business, Bumper Pros, in Venice, Florida. Over the years, his expertise became a cornerstone of the community, with many relying on his skills and knowledge for their projects.

JR is deeply loved and remembered by many, including his son and daughter-in-law, Kevin and Rachele Cox; his two sisters, Donna Mustari and Gina Mustari-Kiger; his nieces, Tiffany Franciosi and Sabrina Golich; his two nephews, Michael and Brandon Janczewski; and many other friends and loved ones.

The family will remember JR as someone who could light up a room with his humor, charismatic attitude, and his constant willingness to help others. He was always the first to offer his help when someone needed it and never missed an opportunity to share a good laugh.

A Celebration of Life will be held for JR at the Outlook Sports Bar, located at 889 U.S. 41 Bypass South in Venice, Florida, on Saturday, January 4th, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. The family invites JR's loved ones, friends, and the community to gather and celebrate the remarkable life
