Hello, Uncle

Wanted very much to speak with you at this time of deep sorrow that you and Lisa are going through. The news I received yesterday on Ron Darling, affected me greatly. I am shocked and unresponsive. I can not stop crying because he knows what happened to my cousin indirect. Whoever I met briefly, but enough to arouse much care and affection. I spent too badly yesterday only to remember the small moments we spent together. Shy of his moments of my hand. Pride in having Lisa as a child genius. The video that I made a farewell before going to Canada came in his head hundreds of times. Especially in the part where I said about the future and potential of Ron. I keep thinking about it, uncle. Help me. Let me talk to you. Really wanted to be able to go Prai and stand by you and Lisa. I swear that if I had money and no job, I would have caught a plane straight to Fort Myers yesterday. I have no idea the pain that Lisa is going and I really want to leave, with all my heart, my regret for the incident. I love you. Sorry if I was away for a while. I tried to talk with you and call you several times since I left the United States.

Send a kiss to Lisa and the girls for me. I am dying of longing.

Kisses

“ Where do I start..... from the day that we met in your garage when you showed everyone your new invention for your gun, I knew right then what an amazing person you really were. You were by far the most intelligent person I've ever met and I knew right away from your sarcastic and witty humor, which we both shared, that we'd hit it off as friends! Now I wish that it hadn't been cut so short, and I'm still in shock that you're no longer with us. I can honestly say that not a day will go by that I won't think about what a great person you were, not only as a friend, but also a brother and son and how much everyone will miss you. My only regret is not meeting you sooner, as we were just becoming good friends. It makes me sad to think that we will never get to see any more of your unbelievable inventions and I wonder what crazy contraptions you'd come up with next (I still laugh because every invention was so intricate and unbelievable, it boggled my mind and I wouldn't even know where to start such a project). You were a one of a kind person and truly a gift from god to your parents and family, who I know love and miss you dearly.

We never made it to the gun range like we planned, but one day I know we'll all meet again, so for now it's not goodbye it's see you later... Rest in peace Ron, I know you're in heaven looking down on all of us.

My condolences go out to Ron's family and friends and especially his wonderful parents, Ron and Lisa. I can't imagine what you must be going through at this time, just know that you did a great job in raising an amazing son whose achievements can never be matched by another.

“ Lisa & Family
I am so sorry to hear about Ron. I remember when you were pregnant with him, it seems like yesterday. I know nothing I can ever say will ease your pain, but you are in my thoughts and prayers. You are one of my oldest and dearest friends. You always amazed me with your strength, you are a wonderful mother. My thoughts go out to you and your family.

“ Dear Lisa, Ron and family,
I was stunned and saddened at the news. Ronnie was a spark in my class and in my life. He had such an enthusiastic way of taking on something new. He loved learning about Dinosaurs and meeting the children and antics in the Tip and Mitten books as he learned to read. He probably was the most courageous child I ever met. Be so proud of yourselves for raising such a prize. Gos bless you all.

“ Hey BUDDY,I just wanted you to know you are missed than words can say.I will always cherish our memories....Like our wheelchair races down White ave (That btw you always won). How I always left broke after our Friday night poker games and that crazy hunting trip you got me to go on which we froze our butts off and didn't catch anything.....and so many more. You always held your head up high and took things head on in life with great perseverance. I will always admire you for that. You will never ever ever be forgotten. Love you BUDDY, John....(uncle John lol).

Its not a bad thing...just a sad thing for me. Like you said we cannot be selfish to our own feelings, so I try not to be. This is why I am writing this to you. I miss you very much and can clearly hear the sounds of your wheelchair while I make my cafe in the kitchen. Its very hard papi...very hard but I know you are in a better place. A happier place for you. TE AMO SPERO DI VEDERE UN'ALTRA VOLTA. VAI COM DEUS MEU FILHO.*

“ Dearest Ronnie, Your life was a true gift to your family and to anyone who met or knew of your extraordinary accomplishments. You are a great inspiration to the disabled, especially to your cousin David, who admired your abilities and was pleased to assist you in your school works. Your spirit will always be remembered as one of greatness and enthusiasm. Now you are free to soar the heavens and reap the rewards you so richly deserve. You will always be remembered in our thoughts and prayers. Love and thanks for being a part of our lives, we will never forget you.

“ Mr. Sushi,

You are free now, free from all the pain that you hated. I'm mad at you for leaving this world, but if only you are happy and free, I'll let you be. You were a great son and a great brother. You took care of everyone in an amazing way. I'm sure you will keep protecting the family. Now you are up there in the clouds, guess at least you got the super power to fly, so be a superhero for the girls.

You are the smartest and the most sensitive person I've never known, that makes you a poet, a writer, a crazy inventor, and an outstanding person. I'll always remember how we laughed over some stupid movies, how we sang the stupid songs, how we just couldn't stop telling one bad joke after another, how you could always fix my computer problem even you were half the globe away, and how we shared those geek knowledge and enjoyed being a pair of geeks.

You taught me so much that my life is formed with you in it deeply. So I know I'll always have you by my side, so be free and happy in the Kingdom of Clouds, we are not done yet! I wish you would say something now, you always knew what to say.

Ciao ciao, smile and have a nice dream. I'll see you.

“ Dearest Family,

*Through all our tough times of loss throught the years, in my heart I know that our lost family on earth is now together in Heaven.....
(poem) The angels shine upon them each day in such a special way, in a peaceful place they are there to stay. Our hearts are broken and sad for our loss but we will prey that someday we will be together far away. They see us here so in dispair and know it is beyond repair, but send a message lound and clear, a promise that they will always be there. So sad we don't have them in our life to share. We can only just try to hold in a tear. Our lives not the same we can only fear. There spirit is with us all around the sphere. Love

“ My baby....my boy. You are my LIFE!!! Always were and always will be. I do not believe any mother could have been prouder of her son as I am of you. Your achievements in life have been far more than most. Everyday with you was a true blessing and a gift from God. Now I am left with complete emptiness and pain.....I do not know how to live my life without you. You are the center of my world. As I write this to you my son....I feel nothing but selfishness....selfishness to my own hurt and feelings. When the reality is you are in a happy peaceful place with your papa shining down on me like my angel. I always did the best I could for you and I believe you knew that. I also want to say THANK YOU. Thank you for all your help to me. My love for you is unconditional and I will not and cannot ever let go of you. You are my baby.....my baby. Mama loves you forever, sweet dreams my love.

“Babe, where do I start. I am so empty knowing that I can never hear your voice again. Our wonderful memories that we've shared will ease my pain a little and make me able to accept your passing. You have touched so many peoples lives, even those whom you have never met. You were an inspiration to me in so many ways. You were the strongest person I knew and have come so far in life. You have always succeed above and beyond in anything that you put your mind to. Ron, I know you are walking w/ the angels and papa now. Spred your wings you can fly!!!! Until we meet again, I will always love you and carry you in my heart forever and ever!!!!Auntie Gina xxxxxxxx

Lisa and Ron, you both have given Ronnie 23 years of a beautiful, full filling, happy life. You both have always supported anything he was ever into. He's had so many accomplishments in his life that I know you are so proud of. Ronnie was an inspiration to me in my life and always will be. Now that I have kids I believe a mom and a dad have different roles in raising their children. Lisa you were more than just a mom. You had an amazing son but your son had the BEST mama ever! I love you so much and wish I could be there for you. Lisa even though we are so busy now, you will always be my BEST FRIEND. Ron you are a great dad. Dad's have to teach their children to be strong and your son was very strong. Ron you will always be part of my family and my brother in law for life. I love you both so much!!!! Love Always and forever Gina xxxxxxxx
