“ Dear Elliot-

It has been a very long time since we have in contact but I have thought of you and dear Rose often over the years. We had such good times together and you were both such supportive and caring friends.

I don't know if you will even remember me but I had to write when I saw the notice of Rose's passing the NYT today.

She was a wonderful woman: talented, effervescent, fun and kind. You were a great team.

I send you love and my deepest sympathy for your loss. I hope your children, grandchildren and great children will give you the love and support you need at this difficult time.

With love,

Diane Love
