“ Never met the family, but I did know Roy a little bit. I seen him last on March 19, 2026 at my Mom's home. The Holy Spirit prompted me to speak with Roy about Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Roy said yes I know, then recited The Lords Prayer. He then did the Father, Son, Holy Spirit sign as he was Catholic. As he walked off, he said that's all I can do. My prayer is that he had a moment of clarity for just a minute. I feel that he absolutely did. I have been to my Mom's house 4-5 times in the last few years. I just hope the family can get a percentage point of peace from this very important information. People have problems, have free will, life happens, life is so hard. We never know when it's our time. I've lost my baby brother 4 years ago, and know this pain. I continue to pray for his family especially his Mom Sarafina who I have never met, but heard so much about. I know Roy loved his mother more than anything, he made that perfectly clear the times we spoke. So sorry for the loss of Roy. Praying for all.
