“ There are so many memories from the ketchup packet in the back of your car, chef salads and chocolate chip cookies, Bosco chocolate milk, your "foxy brown" nails, the witches cackle, peppermint patties, Christmases, Easter and everything in between. You were an integral part of who I am today and I will miss you deeply. We will celebrate your life with the enthusiasm you lived it with. May you rest in peace and may you have been welcomed "home" by those who went before you. Love always, your Lisa Sue
