“ Sara,
I remember we just ran into each other a few weeks back. And even now I can hear your laugh. I can still picture you smiling as we were catching up about our kids. And I remember thinking then, wow those boys are pretty special to have such an incredible Mom! I know they will continue your contagious smile & great laugh! And I will always remember your sweet disposition and silly sense of humor! Rest in peace friend.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Sarah's family; especially her parents and children. Sarah would deliver mail to our office, the Southwest Florida Area Local, American Postal Workers Union on many occasions when she subbed on our route. The picture posted of Sarah portrays her sunny personality she always had whenever she came into our office to deliver certified. Her smile could bring out the sunshine even on the cloudiest day. Rest in peace, sweet Sarah.
