“ I was going thru some old tapes and came across a scene with Sari. I remember when it was shot and her telling me about the project. It's a short scene and was nice to hear her voice . That's all I have to say tonight. ./

“ I have many photos of my dear friend, and at some point I'll share some more.

I miss Sari, poo bear, the wind chimes that hung from the tree in her front yard. I miss our many nights, the sounds of her laugh.....and that beautiful creative crazy mind of hers. She was an American original. She is missed.

“ My sweet friend Sari. A couple of weeks ago I was going through some old photographs and saw some of the photos that I have of you. I got curious when online to see what you were up to and I can't believe that you're gone. I met you when we were 25 years old at the Bel Air country club of all places. We had so many fun times together and you help me by loaning me your credit card for a business venture which panda out.

I remember when you came to my "mansion" in the Hollywood hills how proud of me were. We play tennis together, we had drinks together, we shared friends together, and through the years we always stayed in touch somehow-except for the last several years and now I discover you're in a different place. I'm going to miss you so much. I just drove past your house up in Beachwood and I just can't believe I'll never see you again. I love you dear friend. Johnny K

“ Sari was a colorful character with the beauty of a movie star and the heart of a gypsy. She was one-of-a-kind. Last year, we went from store-to-store to try and sell her homemade jewelry. She made exquisite pieces. Many of her necklaces were adorned with crosses. This seemed to make her smile - knowing the irony of being a Jewish jeweler.

I shall remember her always.
