“ TO MY BROTHER...I'm trying to think of what my last words would have been to you and you know, that's the thing, we aren't suppose to have last words. Of course, I think of all the things I should of done and what I should of said and then I see your face and hear your voice saying, "you just can't do that!" So, Scott I'm going to remember what we did do and what we did say. I have always been so proud to be your sister and to be able to call you my brother. Most of all my heart just melts that my daughter had such an amazing Uncle. Even at 2 years old she adored you. We told her that her Uncle Scott was asleep and she was so anxious to wake you up. My promise to her and to you is that we will be there when you do wake up and we will pick up where we left off but this time it will be forever! This is not a good bye Scott, rather a see you soon. With so much love, your "favorite" Sis.

“ Words cannot and will not convey the loss felt with your departure, Scott. You were a phenominal confedant and trusted friend. Your tenderness and great smile brightened many lives, including my children. They adore you and I will not let them forget what you were to them. May you truly rest in peace and be comforted knowing we will be ok, yet we will never forget. Thank you... for being you. Your friend and brother, Dean PS - Enjoy this "Song of Ascents" as we know that is what you've done... See you soon - :)
Psalm 121 (Amplified Bible) A SONG OF ASCENTS: 1[a]I WILL lift up my eyes to the hills [around Jerusalem, to sacred Mount Zion and Mount Moriah]--From whence shall my help come?(A) 2 My help comes from the Lord, Who made heaven and earth. 3 He will not allow your foot to slip or to be moved; He Who keeps you will not slumber.(B) 4 Behold, He who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. 5 The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade on your right hand [the side not carrying a shield].(C) 6 The sun shall not smite you by day, nor the moon by night.(D) 7 The Lord will keep you from all evil; He will keep your life. 8 The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore.
