“ I'm in complete dismay that this women who was like my second mother, has passed. I met her when I was just a little girl and her daughter is my best friend ever, even though we live far apart you all have been a part of my family no matter what. I remember her famous italian cooking, her perfume, her painting that hung in Nichol's bedroom of beautiful flowers. There are too many memories to mention. The biggest one will stay with me forever and that is the talks we would have when I was having rough times with my mother. She always reassured me that things would be alright and were of the best intentions. I will miss her laugh, her smile, and the way she use to say Nichol's name (Neechol) is how it sounded. A true southerner. Sherry, I love you and miss you and promise you I will always be a part of your family as always. Rest in Peace....I will think of you often. Love you, Love Kim
