“ Mom,

There was not a doubt that you were the brightest light in my life. But I didn't realize how bright until you passed on. Your light is infinite and I'm just now beginning to scratch the surface of your love for me and pure devotion to your family. I look back and wish you did not have to sacrifice so much, but you didn't think twice about it and did it with not only grace, but a joyful smile. These last couple years, I have been moved beyond measure at the smallest things. I know it is because my capacity for love has been deepened, expanded, by your hand. In moments where I seek your perfect advice, I hear you in my mind. When I'm unsure of a recipe, I feel you guide my hands. When I feel exhausted, I lay my head on my pillow and feel it resting on your lap. Your love is more than enough. You are my favorite person, forever and always.
