

Stacy Quentin Brock

October 19, 1965 - December 26, 2022

Stacy Quinten Brock, 57, a lifetime resident of Fort Myers, Florida, went home to be with the Lord on December 26, 2022. Stacey was predeceased by his loving parents Malcolm and Voncile Brock, nephew Cliff Brock, his grandparents Fred & Izetta Blount, Clifford Lee Brock, and Eleanor Brock Pomroy, Step-grandfather George Pomroy, Aunt Betty Jean (Walt) Vaughn, Aunt Jerry Ann Foxworth, and Aunt Grace Horne. He is survived by his brothers Richard Brock, Glenn Brock (Christina), Michael Brock (Donna), and sister Tina Brock, Aunt Audrey (Dick) VanDeusen, Uncle Billy Foxworth, Aunt Gussie, and Uncle David Hughes, as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, great nieces, and nephews, and many close friends. Stacy was a faithful member of both the McGregor Baptist Church and the Tice Lions Club and always selflessly gave of himself to others. He loved good food, riding his gator cart, and being out on the water. While Stacey worked, he was always listening to '80s classic rock. He was considered, by his neighborhood friends, the honorary mayor of Ellis Road. Stacey was a kindhearted, gentle person whom anyone would be proud to call brother, uncle, and friend. Those who knew him were and are blessed. In place of flowers, the family is asking donations to the McGregor Baptist Church food pantry, 3750 Colonial Blvd, Fort Myers, FL 33966. Interment will be at the Alva Cemetery in Alva, Florida. A private graveside service led by Chris Hansen will be on Friday, December 30, 2022, with a celebration of life being held on a later date. Arrangements are under the direction of Gendron Funeral & Cremation Services Inc., 2701

Lee Blvd, Lehigh Acres, Florida.

“ Stacy was one of our valued volunteers at the McGregor Baptist Food Pantry. He was dependable and always a quiet helper whenever anything needed to be done. We are so sad for our loss but KNOW that he is celebrating his new birthday in Heaven with our Savior, Jesus. We miss you and we know we will see each other again. God blessed us with you in our lives, Stacy.
