“ The "Ric Flair" of the family. I remember the Corvette, the cowboy hat, and the pretty boy hair-do. I know daddy loved and misses you, as we all do. Tasha always loved seeing the cowboy hat. Glad to know that you are resting with Mom Mom and Pop Pop by the river. We will see you someday.

“ You will always be remembered Stan the Man. As the straight shooting, good looking modern cowboy. I love you and really gonna miss you. Never met anyone who could pull off the white shirt and blue jeans as good as you while rocking a cowboy hat and shades. I've always admired your appearance and wanted to be like you. You're the Man Stan and that humor of yours will be deeply missed. Heaven gained a heck of a man. Enjoy it though Uncle Stanley while you can because the rest of us Kegley family is gonna be joining you soon and we all know how we are. Love you. Love Joseph Kegley

“ At the mention of Uncle Stanley, I immediately picture you and your hat as I am sure most everyone does. I will always remember walking into houses and never having to question where you were at as you could see your white cowboy hat from across the room. I am going to miss you Stan the Man! Love you much Uncle Stanley!

“ We will miss you, Uncle Stanley, and always picture you with your hat when we reminisce. :) Age never dampened your style nor the pressures of life your gentle smile. You were always a joy to be around. You are someone that I am hope my sons aspire to be and I wish we all had more time to know you. We will miss you and the memories yet to be had, but happy for you that you are in a place that you are no longer suffering. We love you!
