

Stanley Joseph Koncar

April 12, 1959 - September 23, 2024

Stanley Joseph Koncar (Stush), a beloved father and dedicated friend, passed away on September 23, 2024, in Lehigh Acres, FL, at the age of 65. Born on April 12, 1959, in Sharon, PA, he graduated from Sharon High School in 1977 and later moved to Florida in the early 1980s.

He was a proud father to his daughter, Brooke Melrose, and stepdaughter, Christina Robinson, and a cherished grandfather to Wyatt Melrose. Stan had a special place in his heart for his family, including his siblings, Sandra Wasinger, Linda Popivchak, and Kathleen Nagy, and his nieces and nephews, Julianne Maulding, Stephanie Popivchak, Christopher Nagy, Amanda Nagy, Eleonor Shepardson Nagy, and Madeleine Shepardson Nagy.

In 2008, he opened his own business, Audio & Tint Connection, serving the community with passion and dedication. Most recently, he found joy working at McGregor Baptist Church, where his strong Christian faith guided him daily.

A lifelong Steelers fan, Stan was known for his hearty laugh and generous spirit. He was preceded in death by his parents, Stanley Koncar and Geraldine Dodds, and brother-in-law, Frank Nagy.

His light and love will be deeply missed but will always shine through the memories he created with those he cherished. In the spirit of his faith, we find comfort in knowing he has found peace.
