“ I loved my uncle very much. He was only around for a bit in my life but everyday I wish to see him again. When things got rocky with my parents he'd always be there to take my mind of things and cheer me up. He'd always let me pick out my favorite movies to watch together and he let me get the snakes too. I feel like a little kid saying it because that's when he was around the most. I bet he can see my from up in heaven but I always wondered what his words would be if he was still here to see me.

“ Steve the last time spoke I to you, you said "last go print an ad for Cook's". I wish we could have stepped back in time and relived those memories. You will never know how much I loved being with you. Words can't express everything you did for me and SO many others. Miss you.....Love you. They're are some very happy people in heaven !

“ Stephen- you don't know this, but when we were all in the waiting room, my sister said, that's Stephen Sardich, I was like no way, she said YEP. So I thought I'd be "cute" and walk over to the banister look down and around then turn around and say your name - Stephen! The look on your face was priceless... you said Yeah, and you are....wait we went to school together...you're Mary Ellen, of course Yes, that's me... then we all smiled and shared why we were all there. Played catch up really quick and chatted, shared that we'd pray for both our mothers. We hadn't seen each other in person in probably 40 years, but to run into you was such a blessing. I know that you will be missed. I'm so glad that God brought us all together again at that hospital, but we did get to reconnect and it was so nice seeing you and meeting your sisters/brothers. Thank the Lord for that encounter and know that you are singing in heaven with the angels. You're getting a better record deal than you ever could get here! Thanks for the reconnect memories!

“ I was very honored, and blessed, to attend our senior prom together. Also, I will always remember riding with his family to the many singing venues where they performed as a family, what a very special time for me. I'll miss your smile....

“ Stephen would always brighten up a room with that awesome smile of his and a sense of humor that was not of this world. God puts people like Stephen into our life, if only for a time, to help us cope with life and remember that there is always a time to loosen up and maybe even get a little silly. I can't remember ever having a bad time when Stephen was around. He always saw the bright side and even with all of the issues that he had to deal with kept us laughing and made us smile. I will miss this man but only for a while because soon we will all be enjoying each other presence once again and I do so look forward to that day. In the mean time I will keep joking around and thinking of Stephen and his awesome attitude. "The JOY of the Lord is my strength!!" Love you brother!! See you soon.
