

Steven R Olson

January 25, 1953 - April 12, 2016

Steven R. Olson 63, from Sylvania, Ohio passed away April 12, 2016. Steve worked for General Mills in Toledo, Ohio for 26 years. Upon moving to Lehigh Acres he also worked for Hoe Depot for 10 years. Steve had a life long love of music. He was a talented drummer, guitarist, and singer. He was ageless, and could communicate with people of all ages, and never left anyone without a smile. Steve could tell jokes with a serious face and you never knew you were being pulled into the funniest of punch lines. Steve never met an animal he did not love. He had dogs, cats and even a boa constrictor at one point. He found the love of his life playing with the Watermelon Men, a local band that he was part of for over 10 years. His loving wife Pamela survives him, along with his son, Ben Olson of Gahanna, Ohio, and Michael Sullivan of Lehigh Acres. A sister Linda Queenan who lives in Swanton, Ohio.

“ Pam .. You guys were always so kind to me my mom and Ricardo. I wish I was in Fl right now to give you a hug. I know Steve is in a better place with no pain but we can't help but feel a little selfish and want to hear him sing or play the guitar. He sang on key whenever we asked. Reminded me of a cooler beach boy. Every time I saw him he had a hidden stash of Patron in his pocket to welcome me. God bless you and the family xoxo Sara & Family
