“ I had the pleasure of living with his son Brandon for over 3+ years. I met Papa Stu a hand full of times, and every time he always made me laugh. I can see where B picked up his looks as well as one of the best personalities you can possibly imagine. His nicknames to each of us will always be remembered. I wish the best for the Clouston family. I love you guys.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I did not have the pleasure of meeting Mr.Cloudton but I do know Brandon and I know that he is an amazing man. You should be so proud of him he's a loving and caring person and I know that is because of you and your late husband. I truly pray that God places his hand of protection on you and your family in this time of sorrow. Please know that God will never place more on you than you can bare, and lean on him for all understanding. My favorite scripture in time such as these is Psalm 30:5:
Weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.
I will continue to pray for you and your family and if there is anything I can do it would be my pleasure
God Bless

“ Brandon is an acquaintance of mine and while I don't know him well, he's a staple of a lot of my college memories. Always with a smile on his face. I imagine, that he got that from his father. I cannot comprehend the pain that your family is going through at this time, and as I try to put myself in your shoes, I find that I cannot. My thoughts and my heart goes out to your family in this difficult time. The thought of losing my father brings tears to my eyes. May we all live each day with no regret. Lots of love to you all.
