

Stewart Bennett Jacobson

February 9, 1949 - January 17, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Stewart Bennett Jacobson

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Stewart Bennett Jacobson

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Stuart , I still want all that u owe me, may God deal with Ur soul

Ashley Madespecial - February 16, 2019 at 02:26 AM

“ Stewart met my husband, Les, on The Seven-Ups in the early 70's. Les was the sound mixer and Stewie, a production assistant. This friendship lasted until Les's passing in 2017. Stewie was the most positive thinking guy I ever knew. He dreamed big and never gave up Somehow he knew how to reach the biggest of people, even Donald Trump. He had a gift of gab I have so much memorabilia from him. His mailings would come weekly, his calls almost daily, his visits to the east coast would coincide with his yearning for a pastrami sandwich from Ben's in Boca. He kept in touch with everyone. When you were his friend, it was for life. May you Rest In Peace Stewart. You are now laughing with your dad, Max and your adored mother, Sally. I'm sure by now you've had a dance with Linda. Love and sympathy to you Ronnie, ( aka Michael Savage)

Linda Lazarowitz - December 21, 2018 at 03:05 PM

SG

“ We were lifelong friends, growing up in the Bronx. Our friendship spanned the years and the miles. Mary and I are saddened by his passing and will miss him greatly.

Steven Glassman - December 02, 2018 at 11:50 PM

TC

“ Stewart I am glad to have known you, you are a very special person and someone I am truly glad to have known! I only wish I could have been there for you! I prayed that this was not your fate but that you were merely engrossed with your pursuits. Rest peacefully. Tracy

Tracy L Curry - October 03, 2018 at 08:24 AM

DE

“ 😞😞😞😞😞😞😞 today go you apartment you no are my friend 2 month call you 😞

delmira - April 04, 2018 at 05:56 PM

JS

“ Stewart was an original. He was so full of life, so brimming with creative energy. We spoke often, and he was invariably in the throes of a new project. His enthusiasm and generous spirit were infectious. I will miss his anecdotes and his frequent mailings. I would wish for Stewart that he rest peacefully, but knowing him as the inveterate song and dance man that he was, wherever he is, he's doubtless working the room and delivering his shtick with wide eyed enthusiasm and hearty laughter.

Jay Sollis, a friend

John Sollis - February 18, 2018 at 12:58 PM

SC

“ Stewart, you have been a good friend for fifty year's. From Spring Valley, N.Y., to Los Angeles, to Naples, you have been a motivating force for good. Ellen and I are very saddened by your passing, and we wish that you will rest in peace. Our best wishes and condolences to his brother Ronald Jacobson.

Steven Curtis

---

Steven Curtis - February 16, 2018 at 08:02 PM

LL

Steve
We met a few times over athe years, Stewie being our mutual friend. I'm sure you remember my husband Les. I just learned of his passing from the Internet. If you know what happened, please contact me He knew the whole world, yet he was alone.
Thx
Linda Lazarowitz

---

Linda Lazarowitz - December 21, 2018 at 04:08 PM

 Charles Hester

I had the pleasure of working with Stewart for a number of years designing his programs for Toys for Tots and other projects. A true original character has left the building.

---

Charles Hester - January 15, 2019 at 03:52 PM

EH

“ My husband and I were very fond of Stewart and were in touch regularly. We were saddened to hear of his passing. Elizabeth Hanna and William Buchalter

---

Elizabeth Hanna - February 16, 2018 at 09:43 AM

DM

“ Stewart was a friend mine - (Dennis Magid) - you have my deepest sympathy

---

Dennis Magid - February 04, 2018 at 01:02 PM