“ Dear Spencer and Mr. Iwanicki,

I am so very sorry for the loss of your mother and wife. It has to be so hard for you. Hard for you to understand how life can be so unfair. Just know that she is so very proud of you and will be your angel above watching over you always.

Love,

“ Dear Bill,

It was only 3 days ago that I saw you again at the AFCAAM center after almost a year. I had no idea that you were in pain! Do accept my deepest condolences.

May I share some words of Kahlil Gibran that I hope you will read:

Some of you say "Joy is greater than sorrow" and others say, "Sorrow is greater". But I say to you, they are inseparable....the deeper that sorrow carves into your being, the more joy you can contain.

I pray that you have the courage needed to transcend your sorrow so that you can have the joy of a beginning...with Spencer and the rest of the family with which you are blessed; and the strength to continue your work with Catholic Charities.
