“ *So sad. I'm glad my mom didn't know. She would have been beside herself. Very sad for Tabby.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Many happy memories of such a beautiful young woman. It's hard to understand why people are taken from us, but please take comfort in knowing she was a very special part of my life.

“ Theresa, you were the baby of our families and have gone too soon. We all had a great childhood living so close together, great holidays and summer cookouts and swimming in each others pools. Great memories that will hold you close forever.

Tabatha, Becky, Debbie and Betty my prayers for you ask that Jehovah holds you close and give strength during your time of sorrow.

Love and Prayers, Linda

“ So many memories, so much time spent together... growing and learning. experimenting, sharing. How and why we lost touch, is a thing of the world today. every one moving around , so much to do... when in the end, it always comes back to times shared with family. I remember riding bikes, swimming. laying out side in the summer looking at the clouds, playing in the creek.

even used my first honeymoon as an excuse to see betty eddie and teresa, wish we would have stayed close.

all my prayers and thoughts to Tabitha and becky , debbie, and betty. REALLY WISH we could all be together again. love you all!
