

Thomas Clarence Agnolucci

October 14, 1946 - April 20, 2020

Thomas Clarence Agnolucci of North Port, Florida died unexpectedly on Monday, April 20, 2020. He is survived by his wife of 32 years, Virginia (Ginny) Agnolucci, and his 4 children, Chad Thomas Agnolucci (Emily), Dena Lewis (Kenny), Dana Hand (Jason), and Brenda Leuthold (Mike). He is also survived by 9 grandchildren, Lauren, CJ, Dylan, Jenna, Jules, Taylor, Morgan, Sawyer, and Jaxson. He is survived by his sister, Valerie (Bonnie) Mochnally (Joel). He is predeceased by his parents, Clarence and Mary Agnolucci.

Thomas, fondly known as Tom or Tommy, was born in Charleroi, Pennsylvania where he attended Bellmar High School. He is also a graduate of California University of Pennsylvania in California, PA. Tom proudly served in the United States Navy. He was a long-time resident of Greensburg, PA where he raised his family and gained many close friends. After serving in the Navy and attending college, he worked his entire career as a counselor at the Pennsylvania State Correctional Institute-Greensburg. After retirement, he was able to focus his time doing what he loved best-playing music. He was a talented and self-taught bass guitar player and thrived while jamming on stage with his friends.

Most recently, Tom fulfilled his lifelong dream of living close to the ocean when he and Ginny moved to Northport, Florida to enjoy sunshine and being close to the beach. He was a firm believer that "latitude changes your attitude" and visited the beach as often as possible. He also adored fishing and enjoyed exploring new fishing spots along the coast of Florida.

Tom loved his family. He passionately adored his wife, Ginny, and often pointed out how beautiful he thought she was. He was incredibly proud of his children and grandchildren and often referred to his kids as his heroes. He marveled at his grandchildren and was convinced he was blessed with the best in the world. They knew him as their Pop Pop.

Tom was funny. He was effortlessly and unapologetically funny. He was clever, quick-witted, and a friend to all. He loved people and he loved animals, especially dogs. If you were an animal in his presence, you were certain to be spoiled.

The family will honor Tom's wishes to be cremated and forgo a funeral. They are planning to gather and sprinkle his ashes over the spot he loved best, the ocean, and will enjoy two of his favorite things, a vodka martini with olives and a slice of square pizza. Raise a glass and toast to Tom for being a dynamic husband, father, grandfather, and friend.

Arrangements are under the direction of Gendron Funeral & Cremation Services Inc. located at 14538 Tamiami Trail, North Port, FL 34287. 941-423-9110 www.gendronfuneralhome.com

“ So sad to hear that Tom had passed. We served in the Navy together in Va. We worked together and partied together a few times. He was a great guy, always smiling and joking. Tom was senior to me so I looked up to him.

My condolences to Tom's family. Fair winds and following seas shipmate. RIP

“ First, I would like to express my deepest sympathies to Ginny, Tom’s children & grandchildren, and his many friends.

I first met Tom in the First Grade. I still remember when he came to school with a “map to a goldmine”. (I think drawn by an uncle) and on recess we went to the construction site of Route 70 that was being built near our grade school and mined for gold! We did find some gold colored dirt & clay — we thought it was the real thing until Miss Crawford, our teacher, disabused us of our folly.

After Tom’s family moved, we reconnected on the football field as sophomores at Bellmar High School, where we were notoriously the two smallest kids on the high school team! We became fast friends and buddies all through high school & I loved his great personality, sense of humor, kind and compassionate disposition, and lady-killer looks! He was voted the Best Looking Boy in our senior class.

While we didn’t see each other often in our adult lives, I would always look forward to seeing Tom at a high school reunion, and it was always as though no time at all had passed since high school. Tom was as kind, gracious, witty and handsome as an adult as he was as a teenager. I enjoyed following him on Facebook as he pursued his career helping others as a counsellor, and pursuing his passion as a musical artist. He brought joy and life to others his whole life and I admired him deeply.

He called me just 2 weeks ago, discussed the state of the world about which he was very concerned, and we got off the phone vowing to pray for each other and get together soon since we now live an hour away from each other. My only regret is that we didn’t spend more time together over the years that have gone by far too fast. I will miss and love this great man until the day I die — he was one of the great people I have been honored to know. May you rest in peace, My Dear Friend. Love, Tommy Runfola “*Tom was a good friend to my husband, Dan while working at SCI Greensburg. Dan passed on the same day so I imagine they are causing a ruckus together now.

Rest in peace, Tom. Many hugs and prayers to family.*
