Born on December 22, 1948, in Pontiac, Michigan, TC embarked on a journey that led him to call Sarasota home, where he left an indelible mark on the lives of those who had the privilege of knowing him.

TC's life was a testament to friendships and a deep appreciation for the connections that bind us. His strong convictions and free-spirited nature guided his path, and he lived life on his own terms. TC's impact on the lives of his friends and the community was profound.

An enthusiast of human interaction, TC was a true social catalyst. His magnetic personality drew people together, and he possessed a remarkable ability to create an atmosphere of camaraderie and joy.

Whether at local bars or gatherings with friends, TC's presence was a reminder of the simple pleasures of companionship and shared laughter. TC shared his love for trivia, music, card games, poker, and
