“ The first time I met Tom was at Charlie’s Boat House and needless to say, I was very nervous. I wanted to make a good impression. I drank a few cocktails to calm my nerves and after the 3rd one, Tom leaned over and said “Do you want my cocktail too??!” I was so embarrassed but he laughed it off and said “you’ll fit in well with the family!” It was a the icebreaker I needed as we all laughed and toasted to new beginnings!
