“ Thom, I wish I had known about what was happening in your life, bud. I would have been there in a heartbeat to help you out if I had only known you needed it. You were one of the nicest guys and coolest cats I'd ever had the pleasure of meeting. I wish I could have been there for you more often, Thom. I miss you, man...I just hope you've finally found the peace you so much deserve. Godspeed, my friend...

“ Thom; As I prepare to leave Europe, I think of how much you loved and enjoyed your time here. You were always up for an adventure and challenges seemed to bring out your best. With your traveling "buddy" Aldo, you were always off to some distant corner of the world, experiencing new people, customs and sights. Looking for that perfect photo or video or just to commit the scene to memory and tell your friends once you returned to home, where ever that was at the time.

Your friends were your family and I was proud and glad to be a member. Hoping to meet up once again in the future to tell stories and enjoy each others company. I will always remember and miss you. Your forever friend.

My prayers to Chris and his family for their loss.

“ Thom, there's still a spot on the couch open for you at Bennett's, and a cup of coffee in your honour.

I was privileged to know Thom for many years socially around downtown and he was always quick to give his help in any way that he could, and always ready with a kind word and a smile. I was always genuinely glad to see Thom, and enjoyed his company.

I'll miss you Thomas, my friend, and will remember you always for the graciousness you displayed and the friendship you offered to me and to countless others.
