“ Dear Debbie & Family, This morning I heard of Tim’s passing. My most sincere sympathy for your loss. I always enjoyed talking and joking with Tim in those early morning days at the YMCA. Some of the “early morning gang” is still active at the Y and he was never forgotten as one of us. Best regards with prayers, Bill Englerth

“ For: Mrs. Timothy J. McConnell. Dear Debbie, I so wanted to send a card, but am unable to secure a valid address. My deepest sympathies go to you concerning Tim's death. Had no knowledge he was ill. My mind returns to when you moved into Hampshire House, shortly before your wedding. You played so many love songs on your stereo or whatever-- and, if I was home, I heard them all! You were so happy, ecstatic.... So thankful you always will have those memories. Remember the good times, ignore the negative. I lost my husband 9 years ago; one minute he was sitting beside me at a legal seminar, the next he had slipped to the floor and was gone. Please call me if you need to talk-- or just to say hello. Once again, my heart goes out to you--and the most sincere prayers.
