“ *I am so sorry to find out today that Tricia has gone to be with our Lord in Heaven ...my sorrow is for all she left behind...not for her... she couldn't be in better hands...Tricia was a best friend growing up...we shared so much...the births of our children...and most importantly...she was the one who led me to my Salvation in Christ...we shared teaching the smaller kids in Church...baby sat for each other...and talked each day like there was no tomorrow... shared dinners together with our families...shared the journals she had kept for the boys Jason & Jeremy...she was a wonderful mother...a wonderful wife...
A wonderful friend...
Till we meet in Heaven my Sister...
Love you and will miss your beautiful smile❤️❤️❤️❤️*

*Rog.....I was trying to get your current address and I found this instead. I am sitting here crying! I have thought so often of you and your family and how much you and Tricia just radiated your love for one another. We had such good times growing up. My heart is hurting for you, my adopted brother! I like to remember her with the sparkle she always had in her eyes. Let me hear from you my friend...Reta Lewis Behrens
