“ I came to know Valerie back in 2007 when she dropped by the Faith Lutheran Bread Day Ministry to pick up bread for some of her clients. She was an outgoing and kind person. We hit it off and soon she was helping us pick up the bread (4:30 am in the morning) at the bread warehouse riding shoulder to shoulder in a crew cab pickup with other volunteers. As with everyone commitments took her away from picking up bread for some time however in 2012 she returned to us to help unload bread at the Church thru til July of this year. It always amazes me how some people can work thru all their troubles /challenges yet find time to help others as Valarie has. I will miss Valerie and her smile. May God keep her family and friends in His steadfast Love and I'm sure she is helping God out today in the Heavenly Kingdom.

“ Valerie became part of my life a little over three years ago. At that time, she agreed to take care of my mother, we did not believe Mother would live very much longer. With Valerie’s care and nurturing she has given me this added time with Mom that I did not think possible. During this time, a special friendship developed, one that I will always cherish and remember. Valerie was loved and admired, she will be missed by all. She was my special angel on earth, now she is in heaven with the other angels.
