“ I lived in Harbor Cove with Vern and Bette! I could look down the canal and see their light on across the canal from me. I was living alone and it gave me security! I met them and remember seeing Vern walk his mother. Brian and I sold their house and another house. It was a great experience! They were the greatest of the great. He and Bette were a beautiful couple! He was gallant, sincere, a straight shooter(especially when he killed a rattlesnake) ha. I remember him as a great father and grandfather! His grandson, Trevor Elmore, was always around their house and the community pool. Vern will live on in my heart! What a great human being. We need more like him. I am so glad our paths crossed his. It's been a blessing
