You and I got to know each other working on the Edison Parade float and laughed about Bill's comment. From then on we called each other "Twin". Roni, it is with such sadness that I say good-bye. Your spirit-driven, positive attitude always amazed me. I was and will continue to always be gratified to be your "Twin". I love you!*

“ Roni was so much more than a niece, and I wish I had more time with her to tell her how much I appreciated all she did for Andy, and the joy she brought to our family. Her sense of fun was tremendous, but second to the love in her heart for others. The light in our hearts is dimmed for now, but will shine brightly again when we remember all her wit and love of life. In life she saved lives, and in death, I have no doubt she will be saving souls.

“ At this time of grieving we draw comfort in words by Zig Ziglar:
"Only one thing could be better than a joyful life in Christ here on this earth, and that is a life of joy with Christ in heaven. It is the glory of heaven, and being aware of all that a departed loved one now experiences, that truly takes the pain out of death." Love to you - Bill, Ethan, and Christopher “ Roni was my Little in Sigma Kappa, but there was nothing little about her -- huge heart, huge energy, huge intellect, and, of course, huge cajones :) Even as a young woman, I don't think she ever had a moment of self-doubt or insecurity, a gift many people don't realize is already theirs until much later in life. What a beautiful and lasting gift God gave the world in Roni. She could enliven a space instantly by merely entering it. My prayers for peace and healing to her beautiful family -- May the love of God and friends and family help to smooth the jagged hole left by her absence. One heart, one way.
