

Vivian Marie Macke

September 16, 1953 - June 28, 2024

Vivian Marie Macke, 70, of North Port, passed away on June 28th, 2024, with her only son, Christopher, by her side. Born in Cincinnati, Vivian moved to Florida in 2000 to be near the ocean, which she fell in love with after a road trip to the Sunshine State as a teenager.

A free spirit, Vivian attracted friends from all walks of life with her boundless energy and compassion. She was a devoted dog lover, at one time owning four simultaneously. Vivian was also an outspoken advocate of organ donation, having received a kidney transplant that liberated her from dialysis for nineteen years.

Vivian was known for her kind heart, contagious laugh, and boundless generosity, especially during times of need. She will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
