

William Wendel Crosby

August 9, 1938 - March 19, 2020

William “Wendell” Crosby 81 of Alva, FL went to be with the Lord March 19, 2020.

Wendell was born August 8, 1938 in Elba, AL to the Late Johnny and Laura Crosby. He later moved to Florida at the age of 2. He is preceded in death by his parents, wife Dorothy Crosby, his oldest daughter Brenda Poupard and grandson Jonathan Peterson.

He is survived by his sister Debbie (Don) Gilbert, brother Westley (Ruth) Crosby, two daughters Wendy (John) Peterson, Tammy (Wayne) Hicks, granddaughter Rodina Calderon, Britany and Kristen Peterson, Ashley Hicks and grandson Brent Hicks, and 4 great grandchildren as well as several nieces and nephews.

Wendell was a farmer most of his life, after he gave up his farms he worked in landscaping until he finally landed his dream job taking care of baseball fields for the Red Sox. He spent the rest of his working years on these fields surrounded by baseball.

When he retired he spent his days quail hunting and watching baseball games. Both of which he enjoyed immensely.
