

William "Dave" Reynolds

September 8, 1955 - July 7, 2013

William "Dave" Reynolds, 57, of Cape Coral passed away on Sunday July 7th surrounded by family and friends. He is survived by his wife of 19 years, Cathy Reynolds, and his son, Derek Miller. Dave is the son of the late William H. D. Reynolds and Florence Moore. He was born in Chester, Pennsylvania on September 8th, 1955 and spent the rest of his youth in and around the Philadelphia area. He followed his parents to South Florida in the late 80's where he would spend the rest of his adult life. Already an avid hunter, Dave fell in love with the natural beauty of Fort Myers and spent much of his free time fishing it's shores and waters. Most recently, he worked for the Cape Coral Breeze. Dave's family and friends will remember his quick wit and delicious Italian cooking. He will be laid to rest Saturday July 13th at Lee Memorial Park following a celebration of his life at First Baptist Church of Lehigh Acres at 11am. Friends and family will gather to pay respects at the church from 9 to 11am, prior to the ceremony. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the Wildlife Foundation of Florida or the Shriners. You can submit an In Memoriam donation on either of their websites. Arrangements entrusted to Anderson - Patterson Funeral & Cremation Services. (239) 694-4121.

“ All too familiar with that phone call' that chengas your life, completely throws everything in the air to land where it will. Thank you for sharing, because actually talking, remembering and processing are way better than those dumb cards. My Dad told me, when something like this happened three years ago, Remember to process. And eat. Don't forget to eat. It's simple, but Dad's are always right. Take care of yourself, and laugh when you can. xo, audrey
