

William K. Graham

September 1, 2012

William K. (Bill) Graham, 88, devoted father, grandfather and friend, passed away on September 1, 2012 after a courageous battle with cancer.

He was born on December 13, 1923 in Frankfort, KY. Bill majored in chemical engineering at the University of Cincinnati before entering the Navy during WWII to train as a Navy pilot. After the war, his various professions included private pilot, farmer, tax preparer and insurance agent. In the 1970s, he served as board member for Frankfort Independent Schools.

He retired to Naples in 1988 where he was an avid golfer, bowler and dedicated volunteer at City Hall where he often worked 20 hour weeks issuing beach parking permits. He was generous with friends and neighbors, eagerly lending a hand whenever he could be of help.

Bill was predeceased by his wife, Jean Sullivan Graham.

He is survived by two sons; a daughter; a sister, Jean Smith of Elephant Butte, NM; and four beloved granddaughters, Emma, Sophie, Kali and Tessa, whom he missed so very much.

A memorial honoring his life was held in Naples.

Contributions on his behalf may be sent to the Parkinson Association of SW Florida (<http://www.pasfi.org/>).

Tribute Wall

“ William K. Graham

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ William K. Graham

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM