

William J Sheridan Sr

September 10, 1943 - May 27, 2017

Mr. William J. Sheridan, Sr. of Englewood, Florida passed away suddenly on Saturday, May 27, 2017 at the age of 73.

William was born on September 10, 1943 in Logansport, Indiana to William and Flossie Sheridan. He grew up the youngest of four children and attended Highland High School. William joined the Marine Corps on October 4, 1963 and served until October 4, 1969. He was employed by Delco Remy until March 1992 and then retired.

William enjoyed running, camping, fishing, chess and was a dedicated sports fan. He also was an avid reader who enjoyed writing short stories.

He will be remembered for his sense of humor, quick wit and silly unique pranks.

William is survived by his two sons, William J. Sheridan Jr. (Elizabeth) and Benjamin S. Sheridan (Shirley) and six grandchildren; William J., Erik G., Brandon A., Zachary R., Ashley Hamilton, Melina J., his two sisters; Naomi McClintick and Annette Hiatt; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

William was preceded in death by his parents, William and Flossie Sheridan and his sister, Wilmas S. Brown.

Services will be held on Sunday June 4th at 3:30pm at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses located at 9654 Gulfstream Blvd. in Englewood, Florida.

Tribute Wall

“ William J Sheridan Sr

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ William J Sheridan Sr

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ I remember when you threw the eraser man toward mine and Billy's bedroom and it bounced around the hallway and ended up on mom's shelf standing up and I told you to do it again....:)

Benjamin Sheridan - December 06, 2017 at 09:08 PM