“ Bill has been a wonderful friend to Hervey & me for years, as has his dear wife, Cis. Bill was a great story teller and jokester. He could brighten any moment. His golf prowess was legendary as was his desire to compete successfully. Bill was fond of his alma maters Manhattan College and RPI. He was a great host and help great cook Cissy entertain myriads of friends. He will be missed. may the light that was Bill live on in his dear family. Hugs for all. Love, Diane & Hervey
