“ When "the old man" (John Shipler) died, Win came out immediately to help. John died June 30, and our anniversary was on July 3rd. Win and my son Paul decided that we needed to get out of the house and celebrate the wonderful years that John and I had together, so with John's daughter the four of us went out to dinner. Win's sense of humor surfaced as he loudly announced that it was "our anniversary" Win and I played the part and looked lovingly at each other. It gave the patrons something to talk about-the "cougar" with that striking young man. The evening gave us some giggles. It was therapeutic-just what Win and Paul knew that we needed. I loved Win and will miss knowing that he is always there when he is needed.

“ *Win was always like the brother I never had. My heart is broken, knowing I'll never hear that laugh or see that smile again. Rest in deep peace my friend!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I got to know Win a long time ago when he would come by to see John Shipler in Southern California. He must have been about 19 or 20 at the time and he had come back from working out in the oil fields of Oklahoma. He was always kind and had a smile ready for anyone around him. I last saw him a few years ago when he came out to see my mom, Lucea Shipler. My wife was lucky enough to meet him at that time as well. We will miss him.

“ I love you, Dad. I wish we'd had the life together we should have instead of just a handful of meetings. There's so much of you in me.

“ Winfield was my first cousin. The last time I saw him was at my Mom's funeral in 2008. What a great story teller he was! We will miss you Win. Rest in peace.... Love you Buddy
