“ Zachary was a very kind person. I met him in middle school and he was always keeping a smile on my face, regardless of what he was going through. Zach was never afraid to be himself which was so inspiring to me. Praying for peace to the family. So glad I got to know Zach.

“ Zach.. an angel... you and I became such good friends when we met at work. You always had such a positive light to you, and your smile was infectious to all of our co workers. We shared many laughs, jokes, and some great memories during the time I knew you. Our random chats and conversations after you moved out of Orlando always made me happy. We always talked about making plans to go out, or reconnect after you move. I'm so sad we didn't. Fly high beautiful angel. You'll be dearly missed. ❤️

“ Zach, my little noseey Rosey lol. The office definitely isn't the same. You left way too soon, but I am so glad God put you in my life even if it was for a short period. I will always remember the laughter, the conversations. I will always remember the time when I tried so hard to give you the silent treatment because you would not stop talking LOL.,of course Zachary being Zachary would not let that happen you started talking to me even more and then of course you would say something that would make me break the silence because I was just bust out laughing. That is who you were always making someone laugh. I miss you, I remember our last deep conversation on Friday before you left here, you asked me to pray for you, and you spoke of the day when you were not going to be here and I got so mad at you and told you not to speak it into existence. You told me you was not ready to go but you were at peace with knowing you won't always be here. And your peace now gives me peace. Sleep in peace, I love you.
